Only the reporting forms which are indicated as „changed“ have to be submitted thereafter together with the Cover page and the Summary Sheet.
FORM A: Dissemination of information

Paragraph 5 of the Decision on Compliance:

“The High Contracting Parties will provide information […] on:

(a) Dissemination of information on the Convention and its annexed Protocols to their armed forces and to the civilian population;”

High Contracting Party: The Republic of Moldova

Reporting period: from 01.01.2007 to 31.12.2007

☐ additional information of dissemination of information on CCW Amended Protocol II to armed forces and civilian population is contained in the National Annual Report provided in accordance with paragraph 4(a) of Article 13 of Amended Protocol II for the year: 2007

☐ additional information on dissemination of information on CCW Protocol V is contained in the National Report provided pursuant to paragraph 2 (b) of Article 10 of Protocol V for the year: N/A

Information to the armed forces, including the extent to which the CCW and its Protocols are part of military manuals and the training curriculum of its armed forces:

While the CCW and its Protocols are not reflected specifically in the existing military manuals, the Moldovan Armed Forces strictly complies with all standards set out therein. The information on the CCW and its Protocols is disseminated among the military personnel by means of instructive lectures. Together with other relevant information of International Humanitarian Law, texts of international instruments of humanitarian law are also available in the libraries of military establishments.

Information to the civilian population, including information on any programs, courses or documentation to disseminate the CCW to non-military audiences:

The texts of the Convention and its five Protocols have been published in the “Official Monitor of the Republic of Moldova” (“Monitorul Oficial al Republicii Moldova”) and are, therefore, available to the civilian population. The CCW related information is also disseminated by the military personnel of engineer units to the people living in the areas where the clearance operations are being conducted.

Any other relevant information:

Nothing to report
FORM B: Technical requirements and relevant information

Paragraph 5 of the Decision on Compliance:

“The High Contracting Parties will provide information [...] on:

(b) Steps taken to meet the relevant technical requirements of the Convention and its annexed Protocols and any other relevant information pertaining thereto;”

High Contracting Party: The Republic of Moldova

Reporting period: from 01.01.2007 to 31.12.2007

Additional information on steps taken to meet technical requirements of Amended Protocol II and other relevant information pertaining thereto is contained in the National Annual Report provided pursuant to paragraph 4(c) of Article 13 of Amended Protocol II for the year: 2007

Additional information on steps taken to meet technical requirements of Protocol V and other relevant information pertaining thereto is contained in the National Report provided pursuant to paragraph 2(b) of Article 10 of Protocol V for the year: N/A

Steps taken to meet the relevant technical requirements of the Convention and its annexed Protocols:

At the time of ratification, the Republic of Moldova met the requirements of the relevant Protocols and no particular steps were specifically required. The destruction by the Republic of Moldova of all its antipersonal mines under the appropriate provisions of the Ottawa Convention could be mentioned as further, complementary steps. All relevant weapons and ammunition of the Moldovan National Army fulfil the technical requirements set out in the Convention and its Protocols. Also, the Moldovan Armed Forces use adequate storage facilities in order to minimize any risk for the civilian population or civilian objects.

Additional information on legislation related to Protocol V is contained in the National Report provided pursuant to paragraph 2 (b) of Article 10 of Protocol V for the year: N/A

Legislation, including the status and content of national legislation to prevent and suppress violations of amended Protocol II:

Through their ratification and publication, the CCW Convention, amendments to it and subsequently the Protocols became an integral part of the Moldovan legal system. The Laws on adherence to the Convention and its five annexed Protocols have been published, under various reference numbers, in the "Official Monitor of the Republic of Moldova", as follows:

3. Law No. 359-XV from 5 November 2004 on adherence of the Republic of Moldova to the Amended Article 1 - "Official Monitor No. 218 from 03.12.08". The Amended Article 1 entered into force for Moldova on 5 January 2005;

In addition, other legal instruments are applicable in the Republic of Moldova with regard to the use of certain conventional weapons: the Law on adherence of the Republic of Moldova to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Production, Stockpiling and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on their Destruction (Law No. 38/1999), as well as the Law on adherence of the Republic of Moldova to the Geneva Conventions and their respective Protocols. Although there is no national legislation, which is specifically related to the amended Protocol II, the Criminal Code of the Republic of Moldova envisages penal sanctions for the storage, purchase, selling and use of weapons and ammunitions, including antipersonnel mines.

Any other relevant information, including the regulations and policies (other than national legislation) adopted to implement the CCW's obligations and ensure compliance with its Protocols: N/A
