Information to the armed forces, including the extent to which the CCW and its Protocols are part of military manuals and the training curriculum of its armed forces:

Information about the Armed Forces

a. General Information:
All soldiers in the Bulgarian Armed Forces receive instructions regarding International Humanitarian Law (IHL). Legal advisers are appointed at the regiment, brigade level and above to advise military commanders on the application of the Law of Armed Conflict. The training programs include among other subjects information about the (amended) Protocol II and Protocol V of the CCW. IHL is incorporated in the curriculum of the National Military University and the National Defense Academy.

b. Specific Information:
Combat engineers and EOD personnel involved in mining activities are educated and trained in all matters related to the Bulgarian military doctrine in accordance with the NATO STANAG 2036 Land mines procedures, STANAG 2389 Minimum standards of proficiency for trained explosive ordnance disposal personnel, STANAG 2485 Countermine operations in land warfare and the respective CCW protocols. These documents are translated and are enshrined in two Bulgarian doctrinal documents:
- Bulgarian Military Engineer Doctrine (entered into force on 2013)
- Doctrine for Counter Improvised Explosive Devices Operations (entered into force on 2013). Mine awareness is also given to all soldiers during their basic military training. Soldiers receive refreshment mine awareness training on yearly basis.

Information to the civilian population, including information on any programs, courses or documentation to disseminate the CCW to non-military audiences:

The Convention and its protocols were officially promulgated and hence incorporated into Bulgarian law.
The civil population has access to the legal norms that are made available to the public through their publication in the official State Gazette.
Information about CCW and its annexed Protocols is published on the MoD website.
